

UNCONVENTIONAL

Outcrop is the North's largest and longest-standing marketing and communications agency, with offices in Whitehorse, Yellowknife and Iqaluit. While we are an established northern company, we are not stale. Outcrop Yukon prides itself in being a young, vibrant company poised for growth.

We've got great digs. Set up shop in our new, large, stylish office and customize it as you wish.

We've got pets. It's not entirely unusual to be visited by a dog, six office fish and occasionally a pet snake. Bring the ferret or tarantula, they are all accepted here.

We're young. Most of us carried our lunch to school in an E.T. or Gremlins lunchbox. If you are young or young at heart you will find your stride here.

We're flexible. It all fits, lunchtime hockey or after school pick-up for the first-graders. If you can get the work done, make a schedule that fits your personal needs.

Family is a priority. While we work hard and need to be profitable, we appreciate that caring for little ones or an older parent often needs to come first.

We pay well. We want to keep you and have you grow with our company. We offer competitive starting salaries with a defined bonus structure and benefits package.

We're competitive. We have won national awards for web and print and have staff who exemplify leadership in their fields in both experience and education.

We are currently accepting resumés for the following positions:

GRAPHIC DESIGNER

We have an opening for a graphic designer with a minimum of 3 years studio experience. The ideal candidate can demonstrate expertise in managing projects from concept to print with minimal supervision, strong communication and organization skills with great attention to detail.

INTERMEDIATE WEB-APPLICATION DEVELOPER

In this mid-level position you would be involved with projects from inception to delivery. You will be working on presentation and middle tiers of simple to complex web applications using a variety of tools and technologies.

ACCOUNTING DIRECTOR

We are looking for an experienced, highly organized and detail-oriented accounting director. The accounting director is responsible for all administrative and reporting functions relating to electronic posting, tracking and payment of accounts payable; generation of, posting, tracking and collections of accounts receivable, and the administration of group benefits and payroll systems.

If you want to join an innovative and dynamic organization where your work and talent will be rewarded, email your resumé and portfolio to:
